

From the people who brought you "Miss Representation"
DON'T MISS THE CHANCE TO VIEW

This film starts a conversation on the stereotypes that are driven into our young boys and asks the question, "What is their impact?"

"Man up." "Don't be a sissy." "Don't cry." "Talk like a man." "Act like a man." "Be a man." Millions of boys hear these words, these phrases, these commands, almost every day of their lives. They absorb the words and then spend a lifetime dealing with their effects. For our young boys, the path from boyhood to manhood is strewn with harmful words and stereotypes.

The new film, The Mask You Live In, explores the confining stereotypes that boys are exposed to as they become men. Through personal narratives and expert commentary, featuring Coach Joe Ehrmann, the film delves into the destructive and often conflicting messages that boys are being subjected to on a daily basis.
